THANKSGIVING MEAL

THANKSGIVING MEALS will be provided again this year for families and individuals who need food for Thanksgiving. You can help in four different ways: 1) Call the church office before end of day on November 12 and provide the name(s) of a family or individual needing a meal on Thanksgiving Day. It is vital that name, valid address and contact number be provided so we can deliver the meal. 2) Sign up in your Sunday School Class to provide food OR give money for the 10-12 turkeys and bread needed. Money can be given by offering envelope, designating it for the Thanksgiving meals or give funds to Lesa or Todd Marston or drop it by the church office. 3) Bring food on Thanksgiving Day to the fellowship hall between 9:30am – 10:30am AND sign up for a shift to help with gathering meals, wrap bread, prepare desserts for transport, deliver meals, etc. IT IS GUARANTEED THAT YOU WILL RECEIVE A BIG BLESSING BY SERVING OTHERS. PRAY, PRAY, PRAY that enough food is collected for those who need it, pray that we will deliver meals with a servant's heart, and pray for the safety of those delivering meals.

These meals are an important ministry for our church family. Let us serve together!

BLESSING BAGS

Please stop by the welcome center and pick up a blessing bag that our women's group has prepared. When you see an individual standing on the corner with a sign asking for money or food, you can give them a blessing bag. These bags include water, gift cards to McDonalds, snacks, and other items. Thanks to everyone that donated items for these bags.

NEW DEACONS

The following men were set aside by the church body to serve a three-year term on the Active Deacon Fellowship: Bob Cull, Brian Forsee, Scott Gibson, Rodney Parker, and Rusty Williams.
